Hebrews: A Bible Study

WC 104 Duncan/Byrd

Hebrews reigns unchallenged as the New Testament's finest commentary on the relationship between Christ and the Old Testament. It contains a challenging message to live wholeheartedly for Christ in every situation. (Women of all ages)

Renovation of the Heart

WC 108 Pittard

We all have the problem of knowing how to live. It's the one thing we all struggle with. If you long to get past the superficial Christian life so prevalent today, Renovation of the Heart offers a practical perspective on how to live "from the heart" by the path of inner transformation. This is a realistic guide for all would-be apprentices of Jesus. (Ages 45-60)

1 Corinthians: A Bible Study

WC 107B A. Keith

This book of the Bible is written by the Apostle Paul to a strong, vibrant church. It's a book rich and deep in instructions for putting our faith into action. Covering topics like spiritual gifts, church life, sexual issues, and worship, this will certainly be an enlightening study. (Ages 35-50)

Proverbs: Uncommon Sense

Wild at Heart: A Study for Men

WC 107A Lively

This study is designed to help men rediscover their masculine heart. It is a guide to understanding Christian manhood and Christian men. It gives men permission to be what God designed them to be—dangerous, passionate, alive, and free. (All Men)

God, the People, and the Covenant

WC 102 Miller

Because God is who He says He is and He has made a covenant with His people through Jesus, it's vital that our priorities and our values align with His. This series will walk us through God's involvement with humanity and what that means for us. (Ages 65 & up)

Ephesians: A Bible Study

WC 109 Mather/Parkerson

This study on Ephesians will take you progressively through Paul's letter to the church at Ephesus. Here you will learn about the sheer greatness and wonder of your salvation, of God's immeasurable grace, of Christian unity in Christ, of the lifestyle appropriate for those who are God's well-loved children, and of the total adequacy of Christ to protect believers from the accusations and deceptions of the evil one. (All ages)

God, the People, and the Covenant
