

December Preschool Newsletter 2021

Okolona Christian Preschool

“J” Week

We'll start the Christmas Season with the letter J and studying the Joy of Christmas! We'll be learning about the Joy of the Shepherds, the Angels and Mary and Joseph.

“K” Week

Kings and Kindness will be studied this week with the letter K. We'll be making Crowns and a 'Kind' gift for our parents this week – Shhhhhh!

“L” Week

We'll be learning more about God's Love this week. On Wednesday we'll make a Star!! And don't forget to wear Yellow on that day, too!

The True Meaning of Christmas

As we enter the Holiday season and the time of celebrating the birth of Jesus, we ask that you help us remember the true reason for the season. As part of our curriculum we will not be including Santa Claus; instead, we will be focusing our thoughts on the joy of Jesus' Birth. (Please refrain from sending anything with Santa on it. Thank You!)

January 1, 2022

Happy New Year!!

Normally, we would say we were starting preschool on Tuesday, January 4.

We are going to set that date tentatively, for now. We will evaluate how Covid19 is going in our city/state after the New Year and may delay opening till Jan 11 to give holiday germs a chance to go away. We'll see! Check your Text and Remind for messages!

Okolona Christian Church Sunday Service

Jan 2nd will have one worship service at 11am only.

Mrs. Lane, our director, will be retiring at the end of December. Mrs. Lucas will be taking the reins (YIKES!). Please send any questions or concerns to Mrs. Lucas at 502-961-0921 or allie.lucas@okolonacc.org
