

CHATTING NOW

Proverbs 19:20

Listen to advice and accept discipline, and at the end you will be counted among the wise.

- When was a time you didn't want to slow down or listen to someone's advice?

- Why do you think it's sometimes hard to accept help or correction?

- What's one thing you can learn this week by slowing down?

CHATTING NOW

Speed Bump

Get something soft for a blindfold, random objects to create an “obstacle course” in a hallway/living room.

How to Play:

- Blindfold one family member and guide them across the room using only calm, clear directions.
- If they rush or stop listening, they might bump an obstacle!
- Take turns guiding and being guided.

Family Debrief

Lightning McQueen learned that slowing down and listening made him wiser and kinder. Who helps guide you in life? Are you good at listening?
